Fire Fighting

Basic firefighting will teach you the necessary skills to identify the type of fire quickly and correctly so that you can select the appropriate firefighting procedure. Prevention is always better than cure.

She Representative

She representative training will equip the learner with the required skills to identify potential hazards, risks, and dangers. Investigate incidents and to make recommendations regarding health and safety.

First Aid Level 1

First aid is emergency care given immediately to an injured person. The purpose of first aid is to minimize injury and future disability. In serious cases, first aid may be necessary to keep the victim alive.

DID YOU KNOW?

The person credited with Control Hazardous & Dangerous Goods can handle dangerous goods during warehousing and storage. They can classify goods in preparation for storage and prepare these goods for safe transportation. Learners are also able to handle incidents in the event of them happening in accordance with required safety procedures and guidelines.
